Share and Care

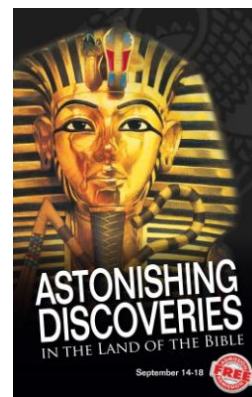

There's been a change in the delivery of Ron Clouzet's communication with the registered sites. Last week we told you to expect his news as part of REACH North America News. That has now been changed so that you will receive his messages in a separate news sheet. Watch for it in your mailbox.

Spanish translation will be provided for the Prophecies Decoded series beginning September 30. Tell your Hispanic friends to tune in and hear the Bible-based presentations given by Ron Clouzet. Homes are invited to host the series for friends and family. Churches are encouraged to register and make the series available to community friends. Read on for more about the series.

Pre-NET Archaeology seminar—September 14-18

Dr. Ron Clouzet and Dr. Michael Hasel will co-host a seminar on archaeology and the Bible. Astonishing Discoveries in the Land of the Bible will air on Hope Church Channel just prior to opening night of Prophecies Decoded: Can the Past Reveal Your Future.

The seminar will take you through Egypt's Valley of the Kings, the pyramids, and the mysteries of the mummies, including the thrilling discovery of the tomb of Tutankhamun. You will see how archaeological data brings Bible stories to life.

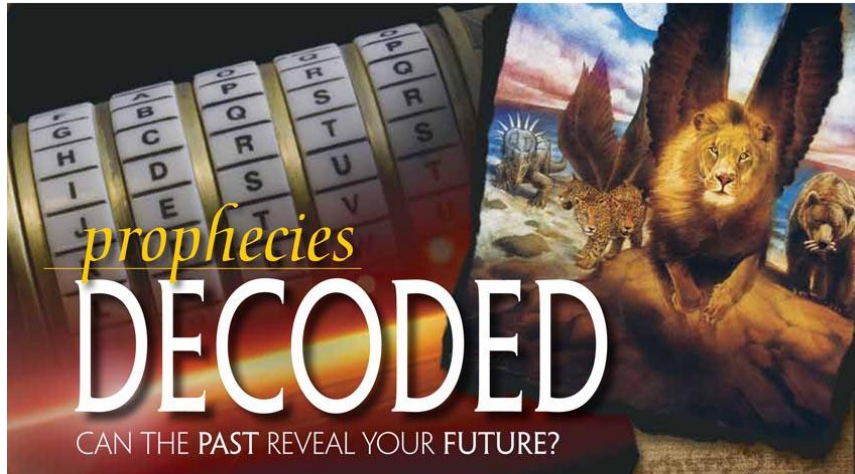

Ron E. M. Clouzet: Clouzet is a professor of Christian Ministry and Pastoral Theology at Andrews University, in Michigan. He is currently the director of the North American Division Evangelism Institute. Previously, Dr. Clouzet taught at Southern Adventist University and served as Dean of the School of Religion. He and Dr. Hasel have held a number of archaeology seminars together. In 1999 Clouzet was awarded the Presidential Excellence in Teaching Award.

Michael G. Hasel: Dr. Hasel is an American archaeologist and Egyptologist. He earned a PhD at the University of Arizona. Hasel's primary research interests are in Late Bronze Age Canaan and Egyptian interaction with the Eastern Mediterranean world. He has excavated in Cyprus, Israel and in Jordan. He is currently director of the Institute of Archaeology, curator of the Lynn H. Wood Archaeological Museum, and professor of Near Eastern Studies and Archaeology at Southern Adventist University.

Plan to host the Archaeology seminar in your church. Invite the community. The seminars will be of the highest quality, professionally sound and of great interest to many.

NET Event: Full message series September 30-October 29

85 days until opening night

Ron Clouzet will be the speaker for Prophecies Decoded: Can the Past Reveal Your Future?

It will be live from the Madison Campus Church, Nashville, and delivered to you on Hope Church Channel. Register at <http://host.propheciesdecoded.com> or call 855-NET-2011.

Meetings will be held every night except Sunday and Thursday. Two different sermons will be uplinked on Sabbath mornings October 15, 22, and 29, the last three weekends of the series. The sermons will be separated by a 10 minute break so local churches can care for local concerns.

It's time to order handbills!

Handbill orders for Astonishing Discoveries in the Land of the Bible and Prophecies Decoded should be placed this month. The sooner the better if price is a concern. www.AdventistEvangelism.com.

Adventist Preaching ends its successful run

“Whatever happened to Adventist Preaching?”

Warren Hughes of Marshall, Texas, asked the question of Bernadine Delafield, producer of the DVD series produced especially for churches without speakers.

“We have them all! They feature the best preachers in our denomination and we miss getting them quarterly,” continued Mr. Hughes.

The Marshall church was one of over 500 churches that subscribed annually to receive the valuable resource intended for both home and church.

“After more than eight years, 23 volumes and over 40 preachers, Adventist Preaching has done its job well,” commented Mrs. Delafield. It has filled a gap, too often found in churches that share a pastor, with inspiring Bible-based sermons.

The complete collection of sermon series will continue to be available online at www.AdventistPreaching.com where one can hear a short clip of the speaker, and at AdventSource, 800-328-0525.
