myWaytoJesus

NAD Launches New Website for Seekers

The North American Division has launched a website for especially for seekers, "My Way to Jesus." This website is ideal for sharing with people who are open to learning more about spiritual topics, and those who may not know much about the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

One of the highlighted features of the new site is the "Did you know?" series of 28 90-second videos that explore Seventh-day Adventist beliefs. Each video is presented by a church member who shares how the belief relates to real life, either through a story or concept that everyone, including those who are not religious, can relate to. The videos take our beliefs and make them deeply personal. Since each video focuses on one of the 28 Fundamental Beliefs, they provide a good way to reach and teach new believers.

This site also features Bible studies for adults and children, a place to share prayer requests, a weekly devotional email, a church finder, and contact information for anyone who visits the site and would like to speak with someone about what they are learning.
